Trucking & Logistics

Dispatch, back office and compliance paperwork so carriers can stay on the road.

What we deliver

- Dispatching: load search, booking and rate negotiation for the carrier
- Invoicing, accounts receivable and broker payment follow-up
- Factoring paperwork and payment tracking
- Broker setup packets, W-9s and insurance certificates
- Driver qualification and maintenance files kept in order
- IFTA, IRP, UCR, Form 2290 and MCS-150 filings
- Oversize and overweight permit applications
- New-authority guidance and new-entrant preparation
- Lane, rate and cost-per-mile analysis

What we hear

"I drive all day and do paperwork all night."

Booking, invoicing and broker follow-up compete with hours of service. Something always slips.

"The broker says they never got the invoice."

Missing PODs, late packets and no follow-up push payment from 30 days to 60 and beyond.

"IFTA snuck up on me again."

Fuel receipts in the cab and mileage in three apps make every quarter a scramble.

How the work runs

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| DAILY | Loads and paperwork: Loads booked to your lanes and rates, rate confirmations sent for your signature, delivered loads invoiced with BOL and POD. |
| WEEKLY | Money review: Open receivables listed and followed up in writing; weekly load and revenue summary sent to you. |
| MONTHLY | Records: Fuel, mileage, maintenance and driver files filed in order; cost-per-mile updated. |
| QUARTERLY | Filings: IFTA return prepared from organized records; renewals for the next 90 days confirmed. |
